A Word From Mr. Dane

Hello again, everyone!

The 2021-2022 school year is coming to an end.

While we couldn't always see each other face-to-face this academic year, we were still able to do a lot of amazing things, both through ZOOM and also in the classroom.

This newsletter showcases only some of your fantastic work. I wish we could showcase all your wonderful work, but then this newsletter would be 1000 pages long!

Aside from showcasing your amazing work, we also want to let people know about all the different English activities we have done without the year; all with the core values of Catholicism in mind.

Please enjoy this newsletter! You can always e-mail me at dan@tccs.edu.hk if you want to ask some questions about this newsletter or anything else.

Weather Report

After a long absence due to Covid-19, the Weather Report finally made a return. Our English guides did a great job and helped keep the Weather Report a fun and enjoyable start to the morning.

Hello, Miss Ritu!

This year, we welcomed Miss Ritu to our TCCS family. Miss Ritu teaches students in Primary Four to Primary Six. She is always happy to talk with you!

Story to Stage

Puppetry Competition

This year, our school joined the NET Scheme's, 'Story to Stage' puppetry competition.

Five students were chosen to enter the competition with Mr. Dane. Together, they needed to collaboratively create a script based on the theme of, "hope", design and create their own puppets and finally, perform the show.

The winning results will be announced soon.

Below are the characters and amazing puppets created by our talented students.

Mr. Cook Cook
Kevin Wong (6A)

Mrs. Makeup
Ella Kristhien
Yvrienne Gubalani (6A)

Mrs. Shiny

ACROSTIC POEMS

BY LUI CHI CHIU (6D)

Chips and cola are my favourite food

Haven't thought any food is better than them

I hope I can swim in cola

Climbing mountains is what I like best

Having a sense of achievement when I reach the top

I wish I could climb all the mountains

Ultimately, I can be strong

ARRESHA RUBAB MOHAMMAD (6A)

Appreciates others!

Reliable and rich with love.

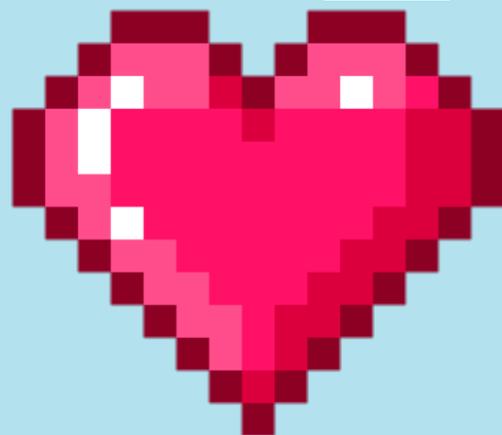

Reliable indeed!

Enjoys fun times with friends.

Shining!

Help and respect each other.

Arresha is an amazing person.

ELLA KRISTHIEN YVRIENNE GUBALANI(6A)

Kristhien is a reptile.

Reptiles are scary and I'm one of them.

I am scary so don't hunt me.

Summer is my favorite day.

Try to hunt me and I will eat you.

Hunt! Hunt!

I am a beast...

errrr!! That person stole my food.

no running or I will hunt you .....

ENGLISH DRAMA

Due to the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic, practicing drama became a greater challenge. Luckily, our English drama stars were able to take part in a ZOOM play!

The English Drama team was successfully able to overcome this obstacle by creating a script that involves ZOOM.

Students diligently rehearsed through ZOOM.

Scene 8 – The first joint rehearsal in ZOOM

Mr. Benson: Let me tell you the result. Annie will be the lead.
Miss Jenny: And all boys will recite the first verse of the lyrics.
Miss Hannigan: Good. Let's try out.

Scene 4: In the school garden

Annie: What would you like to play with the visitors?
Letitia: Play?
Duffy: How about making some souvenirs for them?
Desmond: What! Packing gifts again!

Miss Hannigan: Good question! We are going to perform in ZOOM.
Mr. Benson: Alright! We will sing the song 'Tomorrow'.
Miss Hannigan: This is a tradition of our orphanage. There were celebrations every 5th year.
Miss Jenny: We must sing this song to 'kick-off' the celebrations.
Annie: Yes, we all enjoy singing the song. The lyrics are encouraging.

He wanted two sandwiches, Dad wanted a tomato salad and Mum wanted spaghetti with meat sauce. They all wanted cupcakes with rainbow sprinkles and chocolate filling.

When they got to the café, they ordered their food. But the waiter said, 'We don't have anything in stock. We are doing renovations right now.' 'Aiyah,' sighed Danny. 'What do we do now?' asked Mum and Dad. 'We can go home and make our own food,' thought Danny. He was very optimistic.

In the end, they went home and made their own food.

Rocky and Amy

BY HO KA LOK (4D)

Last Friday, Rocky and Amy were at school. Rocky couldn't brush his teeth or wash his hair. Amy could comb her hair and get dressed. Amy looked clean and pretty. Rocky looked messy. 'I can teach you how to comb your hair,' said Amy.

Amy had three pretty combs. She showed Rocky the combs. White comb was smaller than Blue comb. Red comb was the smallest. Rocky chose the biggest one. He chose Blue comb.

Rocky didn't know how to comb his hair. 'Mama mia!' shouted Rocky. He hurt himself. He felt unhappy.

Finally, Rocky asked Amy to help him. They combed their hair together. Rocky can comb his hair now. Rocky looks neat. They are joyful now.

Helping Ben

Last Friday, May and Ben were in the classroom. Ben couldn't comb his hair or brush his teeth. May could comb her hair and get dressed by herself. May was wise, Ben was clumsy. May wanted to help Ben.

May gave Ben different combs. White comb was bigger than Red comb. Blue comb was the biggest.

But, Ben couldn't comb his hair by himself. He felt puzzled. 'Oh! No!' shouted Ben.

In the end, May taught Ben to comb his hair. Ben can comb his hair by himself now. Ben is clean now. 'Good job,' May said. May and Ben are happy.

MAX MADE A MISTAKE!

BY HEYDEN YU (5F)

Last Friday Max saw a man opening his neighbour's window. He was scared. He peeped through the window. He thought the man was a thief.

Max called the police. 'I saw a man with sunglasses trying to get into my neighbour's house,' said Max. 'Ok, we'll be there immediately!' said the police.

The police arrived and caught the man. 'I am not a thief! Why did you catch me?' asked the man.

'Who are you? Where do you live?' asked the police. 'I'm Alice Wong. I live in this house!' said Alice. 'What are you doing?' asked the police. 'I was throwing away the rubbish!' said Alice. 'Why don't you open the door with your key?' said Alice.

At last, Max found that the stranger was his neighbor. Max made a mistake! They knew that it was just a misunderstanding.

BY HO YU CHING (5C)

Last night, Max was reading magazines. Suddenly, Max heard some weird sounds. He looked out of the window. He saw a man climbing his neighbour's window. The man was wearing a black and white dotted T-shirt. Max was scared.

Max called the police immediately because he believed the man was a thief. 'Help! I saw a man with the sunglasses climbing through my neighbour's window,' said Max.

After a while, the police officers came and caught the man. He was shocked because he did not know what happened.

Max found out that the man was his neighbor. 'Max! It's me. I just forgot to bring my key,' said George. He was embarrassed.

In the end, Max apologized to George. 'No worries!' said George. They got on well with each other.

BY LAM WAI KIU (5D)

Last night, Max looked quietly out of the window of his flat. He saw a man who was climbing the wall secretly. The man had long hair and sunglasses. He was in a black T-shirt and trousers with a dotted pattern. Max was frightened because he believed the man was a thief.

Then, Max called the police instantly because he wanted to report that there was a thief. Max described to the police how the man looked like on the phone.

After a while, the police came to search the man out quickly. They caught him near Max's flat very soon. They told the man that he was under arrest. The man was shocked because he did not know what was happening.

After that, the man stood in front of a door. He claimed that he forgot to bring his key. He could not open his door, so he decided to climb the wall and break in. At that time, Max saw the man's face and found that the man was his neighbor, Mr. Chan. He was very embarrassed.

Finally, Max felt sorry for the police and Mr. Chan. He made a big mistake.

BY CHU TIN CHUN (5E)

Last Saturday night, Max was watching TV loudly at home.

Suddenly, Max saw a man who was trying to climb into his neighbour's home. The stranger was wearing sunglasses, and had long, straight hair. Max was frightened because he thought he might be a bad man.

Max dialled 999 and called the police. Max felt worried. He described how the man looked to the police over the phone. The policeman said, 'Don't worry, Max. I will help you.'

Next, two policemen came soon. They caught the man with the sunglasses. The man was scared. He said, 'I'm not a bad person. I lost my key.' The policemen asked, 'Why did you climb outside the window?' The man said, 'I forgot to bring the key.'

In the end, Max went out of his home and said, 'Sorry!' Then, "the stranger" went home.

BY LAW HO HIN (5A)

Last Sunday, Max was at home. He was watching TV. He looked out of the window. Suddenly, he saw a stranger in a black and white suit. He was frightened and confused.

He was scared because he saw a stranger. Therefore, he called the police. 'Help!' he said. 'I saw a man in a black suit!' He was scared.

The police arrived immediately. They caught the man soon. 'What has happened?' the man asked. He was surprised.

Suddenly, Max found out that "the man" was actually his neighbor. She lived next to Max. She forgot to bring her keys so she had to get in through the window. Max was embarrassed.

In the end, she lost her keys so she could not enter her home. She called the hardware store nearby and found a technician to unlock the gate.

Advice For Good Manners

LIANG YAT HEI (5B)

It is essential to behave properly at home and when we are in public places.

At home, we should take care of our brothers and sisters. We should be nice to them. We shouldn't laugh at one another.

When we are in public places such as restaurants, we should speak softly to one another. We shouldn't eat messily. We shouldn't talk loudly on the phone either.

In the end, we should have good manners wherever we are. We should always say "thank you" to the people who help us.

BY VERLYN (5ES)

It is important to behave appropriately both at home and in public places. When we are at home, we should behave nicely. We should speak politely to our family. We should help and take care of one another. We should do the household chores with no excuse. We shouldn't make up stories to ask our siblings to do all the chores. We shouldn't disrespect our family. We shouldn't make our rooms messily.

When we are at Disneyland, we should be nice to Disney workers. When should try to be quiet and calm when enjoying roller coasters. We should follow Disneyland's rules. We shouldn't throw away the rubbish on the ground. We shouldn't be too noisy while playing. We shouldn't say rude things to Disney employees.

When we are at the airport, we should wait patiently in line. We should arrive early. We should be nice to the flight attendants. We shouldn't cut in line. We shouldn't bring inappropriate things. We shouldn't forget to pick up our bags. When we are in a restaurant, like Jollibee, we should eat quietly. We should be nice to the restaurant crew members. We should talk nicely. We shouldn't eat noisily. We shouldn't be rude to the crew. We shouldn't speak rudely.

All in all, we should have good manners everywhere!

A Story About Mary

BY FIZA (6B)

Mary was a selfish girl. She had never done any charity work. She did not sell flags or donate money to charity.

She watched a documentary on TV one night. It was about a drought in a poor village in Africa. She thought it was boring. She went to bed and had a nightmare. She found herself in the poor village in Africa. The land was too dry. People could not grow plants. There was no clean water. She was so thirsty and frightened.

Suddenly, she woke up and went to drink some water in the kitchen. She was scared. She went to bed again. In the morning, she woke up and went to the charity centre to donate money to charity. She felt glad.

In the end, she learnt that doing charity work is important and meaningful. She was happy because she could help people in need.

BY TANG KA HO (6A)

Mary went to charity events but she hadn't done any charity work. She neither sold flags nor donated money to charity.

One night, Mary watched a documentary about the people in Africa. They were thirsty because it hadn't rained for a long time.

Mary was bored because the documentary was boring so she went to bed. She had a dream. She was in Egypt. She dreamt that the land was too dry there. She was thirsty because she didn't have enough food to eat. She was scared.

In the end, Mary was sad. She should donate money to charity and sell flags so that she could help others who are in need.

MY DREAM JOB

BY ZHANG ZHI CHING (6C)

I want to be an actress when I grow up because I can take part in films, have a lot of fans, wear lots of beautiful clothes and travel around the world. If I become an actress, I will work with lots of idols, get signatures from my favorite idols easily, get awards and do a lot of rehearsals.

I need to be good looking so that I can have more fans. I need to be hard-working so that I can perform well. I need to be confident so that I can go on stage. I need to be outgoing so that I can talk to my fans.

I think this job is suitable for me because I am hard-working. I am outgoing too. I hope I can be an actress someday.

BY WU CHEN (6D)

I want to be an astronaut when I grow up. I want to be an astronaut because they can walk on the moon. I want to see the Earth from space. I will learn a lot about space.

If I become an astronaut, I will bounce on the moon. I will watch the stars. I will explore space.

Being an astronaut, I need to be optimistic because I may often face difficulties. I need to be fit because I have to adapt to different conditions on other planets. I also need to be brave because I will be so far away from my family and friends.

I will prepare myself to become an astronaut by eating healthily. I will exercise more. I am going to read more about space so that I can survive better in space.

BY YU YAN TUNG (6E)

Everyone has a dream job. What is your dream job? My dream job is a teacher because I like teaching and talking to children. I think it is challenging and meaningful to nurture youngsters.

If I become an English teacher, I will play some English learning games with my students. I will also chat with them at recess. I will teach them patiently and design some worksheets for them.

To become a successful teacher, I need to be patient so that I can answer the questions raised by my students patiently. I also need to be diligent. Otherwise, I cannot teach well. I need to be friendly so that my students will not be afraid to approach me when they need help. I need to be smart too so that I can make good use of my teaching skills to facilitate teaching and learning.

To achieve my goal, I will do more exercises about English. I will also improve my English standard by reading books. I will speak in English every day so that I can speak English fluently. I will communicate with more people in order to enhance my communication skills. Although it is difficult to become a teacher, I will try my best to achieve my goal.
